SB 664 - HB 1363

April 7, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes the commissioner of Finance and Administration, through the division of real property, to determine whether it is in the best interest of the state to continue leasing or to purchase facilities that are currently leased. If it is determined that ownership is in the state's best interest, then the commissioner would make that recommendation to the governor. After approval by the governor, the commissioner would then make such a proposal to the state funding board.
